

VCA Technology Ltd - Software Warranty for VCA Video Analytics

1. VCA Technology Ltd (hereafter VCA) warrants that for a period of ninety (90) days (“Warranty Period”) from either its delivery to Licensee or when the responsibility to pay for the delivery becomes due, whichever is later, that the Software shall be free of Defects, excluding errors resulting from modifications or alterations not made or authorized by VCA. The warranty shall also exclude any failure or errors in the tracking, counting, and metadata or any other function or data connected with or produced by the interpretation of the content of the video data.
2. If VCA breaches the foregoing warranty and Licensee promptly within the above warranty period notifies VCA by means of a written report of the breach, VCA shall make all reasonable efforts to promptly repair or replace the non-conforming VCA Software without charge. Where the nature of the defect requires video input to reproduce the fault the Licensee’s written report shall include such recorded video files that can be used to reproduce the fault in the Software. For the sake of clarity there shall be no duty on the VCA to repair or replace non-conforming software unless the fault can be reproduced from information supplied by Licensee.
3. VCA’ warranty obligations are valid on condition that (i) Licensee has acted in conformity with this Agreement; (ii) VCA Software has been installed and operated in accordance with the instructions of VCA within the scope of the Documentation; (iii) Licensee has previously tested and accepted the use of the software within the application and environment for the installation and (iv) VCA Software has not been used with any freely available software not supported by VCA nor within a hardware configuration or version or update thereof outside the scope of the Documentation.
4. If, after a reasonable opportunity to cure, VCA does not repair or replace the non-conforming VCA Software, Licensee must return VCA Software and Documentation to VCA, or certify in writing that all copies have been destroyed, and VCA will refund the license fees it received from Licensee for VCA Software for that installation only. This is Licensee’s sole and exclusive remedy for breach of the warranty set forth herein.
5. VCA provides no guarantee whatever concerning the performance of the ‘Smoke and Fire’ analytic. This analytic does not comply with any national or international standards for smoke and fire detection devices and must not be used as part of a fire safety system. Licensee has the sole responsibility to communicate this performance limitation to its customers, subsidiaries, agents, distributors, partners and end users. Licensee shall hold VCA harmless against any claims of any third parties with respect to failure of the analytic to perform correctly.
6. THE ABOVE EXPRESS WARRANTIES ARE IN LIEU OF AND TO THE EXCLUSION OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS OR OTHER TERMS OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE RELATING TO VCA SOFTWARE. VCA’S TOTAL LIABILITY

FOR ALL CLAIMS AND REFUNDS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LICENSING OF THE SOFTWARE SHALL NOT EXCEED THE LICENSE FEES PAID FOR THE SOFTWARE FOR THAT INSTALLATION ONLY.
